Weekly Bulletin for Sunday, February 11, 2007

Last Sunday...

Rev. Freddie Parkins, guest speaker from Ansted, WV, preached using Daniel 3:16 as his text. Three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, made up their minds to serve the Lord and only Him. A human king commanded that everyone bow down to his idol. But these three men refused. Even when he gave them a second chance to do as he commanded, they still refused. They were thrown into a fiery furnace. They knew that the Lord could bring them out of this trial. However, their minds were made up to not bow even if the Lord chose not to deliver them. They went to their knees in the fiery furnace and waited for the Lord to bring them through. He brought them through their trial and out of the fiery furnace. We should go to our knees when we need help. Just as the Lord brought Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego through, He can bring you through whatever trials you face. We should be like these three men, determined in our hearts to serve the Lord no matter what trial or storm comes our way.

Last Wednesday...

Youth service was scheduled, but when we arrived for church, we found that a copper water pipe above the front men's restroom had frozen and burst, and then had thawed and let water flow out onto the floor. So, instead of worshipping with song and praise, we worshipped with shop vacuums, by cleaning up and preserving the Lord's house of prayer. At the time we arrived for church (at about 6:40 pm), about 2½ inches of water stood in the foyer (on the one side), and about 1½ inches of water stood in the rear of the sanctuary. Thanks to all who worked so hard to help clean up, especially Elder D. Harris for repairing the water line. We're taking steps to prevent it from refreezing in the future.
