Weekly Bulletin for Sunday, March 18, 2007

Last Sunday...

Pastor Joseph preached a message of encouragement from I Corinthians 15:58, which states “your labor is not in vain in the Lord.” There was once a king over God’s people in ancient times, named Jeconiah. He was an unrighteous man. He was hated of God because he caused the men to build his own house up greatly, without paying the workmen for their labor. God so much hated Jeconiah for that sin that He sent His prophet to declare, “Record this man as if childless, a man who will not prosper in his lifetime, for none of his offspring will prosper, none will sit on the throne of David or rule anymore in Judah” (Jeremiah 22:30). God hates the sin of not rewarding people for their labors. God certainly will not fail to greatly reward all who labor for Him in His Kingdom. The reward of God for His people in the age to come will more than we can imagine!

Last Wednesday...

Elder David Harris preached “Time to Get Glad.” Sometimes the people of God feel down. They carry a weight. They carry the cares of this life for a while, and then they get tired. God is going to give us strength. His power is real and wonderful. When your strength is down, keep praying. A time of rejoicing is coming in our lives. God’s going to strengthen us. “Let them shout for joy, and be glad...” (Psalms 35:27). God loves for us to praise and worship Him. “...Be glad and rejoice...” (Joel 2:21). “Sing, O daughter of Zion, shout, O Israel: be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem” (Zephaniah3:14). Let us not feel down, but rejoice and be glad. God is going to do great things for us!

March 23, 2007: Spirit and water baptism!

- Top: One young man came to the Launch, and it was his first time ever in an Apostolic church service. He received the baptism of the Holy Ghost after the altar call, and was baptized in Jesus name. He gave a greatly anointed testimony afterward.
- Lower left and right: Great rejoicing occurred after the water baptisms. A young girl (who is a niece of the Sandy's) that had received the Holy Ghost two weeks earlier, was water baptized after the young man was. Photos by Pastor Joseph.
