

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Elder Lorren Godwin taught “Great Servants of God.” David was a great man of God. He slew a lion, a bear, and a giant. God’s presence was with him. Job was a servant of God who was sorely tested by Satan (with God’s permission, to prove him). Job said, “The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD” (Job 1:21). Once Jesus had compassion to feed a crowd following him. A lad’s five loaves and two fish were all to be found, and the Lord multiplied them. But without the little lad the miracle could not have happened. The boy gave his little for God’s great. On the Day of Pentecost, Peter saw a need for someone to preach. No one else stepped up, so he said “I will.” He ignored his excuses and got the job done. We all have a job to do. To minister is to serve. God calls ordinary men. He doesn’t require a great name or power. Some think God calls only the qualified, but actually He calls “whosoever will” and then He qualifies the called! God sees pedigree and says, “That’s nice, but I can use the town drunk even more.”	Elder David Harris preached “High Expectation!” from Mark 6:1-6. Men were astonished at the miracles of Jesus. “And he marveled because of their unbelief...” Looking forward to something is expecting it to happen. Do we have high expectation for what God can do? Every time we come to church? The woman with an issue of blood touched Jesus’ hem expecting healing. What He did then, He can do today! Just believe! Jesus can do anything. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords. He is at church with us and everywhere we go, whether at home, job, school, or play. He is a miracle worker. Call upon Him, expecting to receive. We need to get lost in the presence of God. Ask and you shall receive. Come to God, expecting to be healed. Expect to be delivered. He can provide anything that we need from Him.	Pastor Joseph preached “Convictions” using Romans 14: 1-6 and Colossians 2: 16-17. Accept a man whose faith is weak. Don’t let anyone judge you for what you eat or drink or how you enjoy the Sabbath. Some feel that we should drink grape juice for communion while others feel we should drink wine. Allow each to do as he believes. Don’t force your convictions on others. Live as you believe God wants you to live, and let others live as they believe God wants them to live. Don’t break fellowship with someone because they have different convictions than you. Live up to your own convictions. The just shall live by faith. See also Galatians 3: 9-11, Romans 4:14, and Galatians 2:21.

A very dirty little fellow came in from playing in the yard and asked his mother, "Who am I?" Ready to play the game, she said, "I don't know, who are you?" "WOW!" cried the child. "Mrs. Johnson was right. She said I was so dirty, my own mother wouldn't recognize me."
Over at Fortitude Holiness Tabernacle, Dexter Rice, the Sunday School teacher, was telling his class the story of the prodigal son. Wishing to emphasize the resentful attitude of the elder brother, he laid stress on this part of the parable. After describing the rejoicing of the household over the return of the wayward son, Dexter spoke of one who, in the midst of the festivities, failed to share in the jubilant spirit of the occasion. "Can anybody in the class," he asked, "tell me who this was?" Nine year old Olivia Crombie had been listening sympathetically to the story. She waved her hand in the air. "I know!" she said beamingly. "It was the fatted calf!"
