

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
The presence of the Lord was awesome. The Spirit of the Lord moved so strongly that there were no regular Sunday School classes and no preaching. Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. Souls lifted their hands to God in praise and worship. Intercessory prayer was made for many of the saints. Burdens were lifted. “Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked” (Psalms 84:10). Surely the presence of the Lord filled our sanctuary. At one point we sang a chorus that says, “To be like Jesus, to be like Jesus—On earth I long to be like Him. All through life’s journey, from earth to glory, I only ask to be like Him.” To be like Jesus is indeed life’s highest goal and our greatest privilege as saints in the Kingdom of God. To be in His presence provides all that we need to reach that goal, and all we desire for lasting peace.	Pastor Joseph preached “What Are We? Where Are We From? Where Are We Going?” using Rev. 5:8-10 and 7:1-17. The “Day of the Lord” (Yom Yahweh in Hebrew) is the coming time of judgment prophesied in the Bible, when men will give an account of the deeds they have done in this body. It will be both terrible and awesome. The Lord has decreed that all judgment will be done by and through the man Christ Jesus. He is the chief cornerstone, God in flesh. John the Revelator was shown a great, innumerable crowd dressed in white robes, worshipping the Lord around His throne in heaven. An elder there asked John, “What are these people and whence came they?” The elder then went on to give the answers. We are the blood-bought church of Jesus Christ. When Jesus returns, the prophecy will be fulfilled. Many people think they can refuse the gospel now, and yet still get salvation after the church is caught away. But that is untrue; it is a very unwise choice. If one won’t live for God now when it is easy, he or she will never stand in that day of hardship. Anyone who refuses the gospel now won’t get salvation during the tribulation. He’s coming back. He’s bringing judgment and wrath upon the unbelievers. But we are not appointed to wrath (1 Thess. 5:9). We have truth. Today is the day to tell people who we are and where we are going, so they can go too!	The Youth Service was exciting and upbeat. The worship and preliminaries were led by Bro Rusty Sandy. There were fun songs, and a great sword drill (Bible search game) led by Bro. Zack Sandy. Sister Missy Harris brought an interesting presentation of the Ten Commandments that was tailored with a theme to suit Valentine’s Day. Audience participation allowed many to get involved and made the presentation even more interesting. Elder Harris ministered on the topic of Signs, Wonders, and Miracles. He testified of things that God has done, which inspired faith in our hearts.

Fun HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

A private plane crash-landed on a South Pacific Island. Both the men on board survived. One of them brushed himself off and proceeded to run all over the island to see if they had any chance of survival. When he returned, he rushed up to the other man screaming and waving his arms, "This island is uninhabited! There is no food, and there is no water! We are going to die!" The other man leaned back against the fuselage of the wrecked plane, folded his arms and responded, "No we're not. I make over $250,000 a week." The first man grabbed his friend and shook him. "Listen, we are on an uninhabited island. There is no food, no water. We are going to die!" The other man, unruffled, shook his head and again responded, "No, I make over $250,000 a week." The first man, mystified and taken aback by such an answer, repeated, "For the last time, I'm telling you we are doomed. There is no one else on this island. There is no food. There is no water. We are—I repeat—we are going to die a slow death!" Still unfazed, the first man gazed into the eyes of his friend and said, "Do not make me say this again. I make over $250,000 per week. And I tithe to the church. My pastor WILL find us."

Question: How do you make God laugh? Answer: Tell Him your plans!!!!!!
