

Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday PM
Associate Pastor David Harris preached " A Blessing in the Wilderness" using Exodus 14:11 & 32:29. Every time God's people would get a blessing they murmured and complained. God led the children of Israel out of the wilderness. It's time for us to get out of the wilderness and quit complaining. In the wilderness water is bitter, but the Lord makes it sweet. The children of Israel complained because they had no food. God gave them manna, but they didn't know what it was. They all murmured, but ate because they were hungry. We've all been through bitter things changed to sweet. When we quit fighting against a promise, blessings will come. We need to get out of the "don't tell me what to do" mindset. Jesus wants to turn the bitter situation in our lives to a sweet situation. God has blessed us and we still complain. As we walk through the wilderness, God will at times put things in our way to challenge us, but we must continue on.	I just can't stop praising His name! That was the attitude in the service. God especially blessed the youth, with victory over challenges they've been facing, and it was prophesied that God has also granted them victory over future challenges because of their praise to Him in this service. We claim this by faith! The congregation was blessed from front to back. There was shouting and singing of praises to God. We enjoyed the ministry of our guests. Sister Carolyn Harris ministered in song, and Elder Perry Harris spoke, using Psalm 22. King David cried out "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" The godly shall suffer; if we live for him, we shall also suffer with Him. Through all our trials God is righteous. He knows and cares what we're going through. Man's days are few and full of trouble. There is always hope in God! This body will grow weary and groan but there is always hope. There will be trials and sorrows in this life but our hope is in God!	Pastor Joseph preached a message entitled, "The God Makers", using Daniel 3:1 as his text. King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, a huge idol (false god) that was ninety feet high and nine feet wide. He set it up and commanded all his subjects to worship the god that he had made. Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah (also known by assigned Babylonian names of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego) were the three Hebrew children who refused to bow down. They had been raised in the Jewish faith, not just in "weekly services" but schooled daily in Jewish academic religious schooling. They were later captured and forced to undergo three years of special "college" in Babylon, to learn worldly culture and literature. But it was not enough to undo their prior education! They refused to bow to the world's false gods. We need to be extra careful in training our kids in truth, utilizing daily, Christian, academic, religious education, to produce children strong against the "god makers."

Fun	HUMOR	Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com
Working as a pediatric nurse, I had the difficult assignment of giving immunization shots to children. One day I entered the examining room to give four-year-old Lizzie her needle. "No, no, no!" she screamed. "Lizzie" scolded her mother, "that's not polite behavior." With that, the girl yelled even louder, "No, thank you! No, thank you!"
My sister had been ill, so I called to see how she was doing. My ten-year-old niece answered the phone. "Hello," she whispered. "Hi, honey. How's your mother?" I asked. "She's sleeping," she answered, again in a whisper. "Did she go to the doctor?" I asked. "Yes. She got some medicine," my niece said softly. "Well, don't wake her up. Just tell her I called. What are you doing, by the way?" Again in a soft whisper, she answered, "Practicing my trumpet."
