

Last Sunday AM // Plus notes on the funeral for Bro. Archie Price

Jesus preached! The Youth choir sang “I Am Free” with a great anointing of God’s Spirit. The saints of God responded with praises to the Lord—shouting, praising, and singing—whatever God wanted them to do. It was awesome! We all needed the blessing and reviving of God’s breath and touch. We learned during the service that Archie Price, our friend and brother in the Lord, had passed on to glory during the early morning hours. His funeral services were held later on, which prevented Pastor Joseph and others from being here on Wednesday (see below). Pastor Joseph (one of Brother Price’s former pastors) preached one of the two funeral services that were held, and Pastor Jim Copley (his last pastor) of Delbarton, WV, preached the other service. Many other Apostolic ministers also took part, speaking on behalf of Brother Price, and many songs were sung. Several CAC members attended. God comforted the family and Brother Price’s memory was greatly honored.

Sunday PM

Associate Pastor David Harris preached “It’s Time To Shine” using Romans 13:12. The night is far spent. We all have struggled. The devil has tormented us. It’s time to shine. We need to shine the brightness of God through the darkness in the world. Our spirit has to be uplifted every time we come to church. The world needs to see us shine. We are servants of Jesus. We need His image to shine through us to the world. If we’re not reaching the world, we need to shine brighter. We need to reach the lost with door knocking, Bible studies, praying, fasting. If we don’t shine in a lost and dying world, what Holy Ghost power are they going to see? Through all of our problems God will not leave us alone. Don’t be depressed. It’s time to shine. It’s time to walk on the devil instead of Him walking on you. Don’t be afraid of the devil. We are under a spiritual attack when little things of the world upset us. Pray in Jesus’ name and He will bring deliverance. Jesus is the Light within us.

Wednesday PM

Associate Pastor David Harris preached “A New Beginning” using Ezekiel 18:2. Thankfully, God treats each one of us as an individual. He will not punish us for the sins of our father. No one is responsible for the sins of someone else. People may look at you and say “Your dad did thus and so, so you’ll do it, too” or, “Your mom did that, so you’ll do it, too.” Not true! You can break the cycle. Get a new outlook. We need to have a new beginning. Overcome past sins. God wants us to live and serve Him. Get a new start. Be concerned about where you will spend eternity. We must examine ourselves every day. Don’t let past failures and hurts destroy your walk with God. Worldly people may seem to be doing great, because God is kind to both the just and the unjust. God will open up something for us.

A little boy said, "Daddy, daddy, I want to get married!" The father said, "That, son, requires both a boy and a girl." The son said, "I've found a girl." The father said, "Who?" The boy said, "Grandmother!" "Let me get this straight," the father said. "You want to marry my mother? You can't do that." "Well, why not?" the son said, "You married mine!"
The substitute Sunday School teacher was struggling to open a combination lock on the supply cabinet. She had been told the combination, but couldn't quite remember it. Finally she went to the pastor's study and asked for help. The pastor came into the room and began to turn the dial. After the first two numbers he paused and stared blankly for a moment. Finally he looked serenely heavenward and his lips moved silently. Then he looked back at the lock, and quickly turned to the final number, and opened the lock. The teacher was amazed. "I'm in awe at your faith, pastor," she said. "It's really nothing," he answered. "The combination is on a piece of tape on the ceiling."
