Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Pastor Joseph taught a church history lesson, as part of Heritage Month at CAC. He gave reasons why it's important for us to work to preserve our heritage by documenting our history. It is amazing that even minor details of biblical history are so important (such as who gave birth to whom and who was king when this or that happened). The Bible is full of many such details. Now, many generations later, such details are proving the historicity of the Bible, in an age when skeptics are trying to claim the Bible is a book of myths. Archaeologists have often set out to disprove the Bible, only to find out their best efforts only proved the historicity of the Bible as valid and its observations accurate. This is due, in part, to the fact that God inspired Bible writers to write down many details of their heritage that might have seemed trivial, yet God knew they would be important details later. Pastor Joseph read aloud, from the Pentecostal Herald, a great historical article titled, "Baptized In Jesus Name."	Pastor Joseph taught "Set Your Affection On Things Above" from Colossians 3:2, and using Isaiah 14:4-23. Things are going to get much worse in the world. Make sure your affection is centered on heaven and your highest relationship is with Jesus Christ. We are not married to any political party nor any earthly nation, but only to Jesus Christ. God did not create evil in this world. The curse of sin came into this world when Adam and Eve sinned. God is not pleased with what's going on in the world – murders, abortions, etc. We must not let the spirit of the world be in our hearts— not in action, dress, or speech. Our affection must be on Heaven not earth. Love not the world neither the things that are in the world. In the eyes of the wicked, there is no fear of God. Wickedness abounds in the world, but by the grace of God we can be saved. It's not God's fault when wicked people do bad things to you. Don't use this as an excuse to turn against God. Like King David, fix your heart upon worshiping God, and set your affection on things above, in heaven.	Pastor Joseph taught "Praying With Seekers" using Luke 11:9-13. The greatest miracle is for someone to receive the Holy Ghost. People need to be renewed in the Holy Ghost. We need to spiritually eat and drink at God's table. An altar worker must: (A) have a good prayer life, (B) have a burden for souls, (C) be sensitive to the Spirit, (D) be considerate of others, (E) have faith and (F) have instruction and knowledge. When you are inviting seekers to pray don't use pressure or gimmicks; use the Word and Spirit. When you are praying with someone: (A) discern their situation, (B) don't distract them, (C) lead them to repentance, (D) lead them to worship, and (E) give instructions. We do not "teach" how to speak in tongues, but rather we explain how to yield to the Spirit. If they do not receive the Holy Ghost, encourage them to continue to seek God. If they do receive the Holy Ghost, confirm to them what has happened, biblically.

Fun! HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

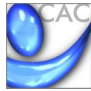

My colleague and I were eating our lunch in our cafeteria, when we overheard one of the administrative assistants talking about the sunburn she got on her weekend drive to the beach. She drove down in a convertible, but didn't think she'd get sunburned "because the car was moving."

A little boy went up to his father and asked "Dad, where did my intelligence come from?" The father replied. "Well, son, you must have gotten it from your mother, cause I still have mine."
