Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Pastor Joseph taught a character study on the biblical character Noah. He read Genesis 6:1-9 as his text. Noah lived at the close of the “age of conscience”, when men had become so wicked that God was forced to purge the earth and start over. God did this by way of the flood. In the midst of such wickedness, God’s Spirit was striving with men (see verse 3), i.e. speaking to men, no doubt trying to warn them to repent and turn to God. None except Noah and his family listened. In the midst of a worldly culture that was turned totally against God, and wholly given over to wickedness, Noah stood out like a sore thumb. He was a preacher of righteousness (see 2 Peter 2:5). He was a righteous man who was blameless among the people of his time, and he walked with God. In spite of the fact that Noah’s preaching did not bring results, he preached. It was the right thing to do. Jeremiah likewise preached without a single convert. We also should be so determined for God.	The Spirit of the Lord moved in a spectacular way in our service, as saints testified about their experiences with the Holy Ghost. Several told how other saints in the church had been steadfast in encouraging them to come to church. Then Pastor Joseph told us that this was aligned with what the Lord had given him that day to speak from I Corinthians 15:58 & 16:13. He preached to us to be steadfast and unmovable. Get in the church and stand fast. Stay firm. Greater is He that is with us than he that is in the world. The Lord is coming back for His Bride—His Church that has on a wedding garment that is without spot or wrinkle (see Ephesians 5:27). The devil will do everything he can to get us to separate or backslide, but just stand firm. “Tell the truth and stay in church.” Junior Elder Rusty Sandy exhorted us to not ever give up. Reach out to someone. Don’t hold it in. Show this Holy Ghost salvation to someone. Stay in church!	Assistant Pastor David Harris preached “From Impotent To Important” using John 5:1-9. People are troubled. God is trying to wash everything from our minds to let us know that we are important. If we could see all that Jesus wants of us we wouldn’t worry about the battles we face. With Jesus we are important. We must have a relationship with God that is sensitive to the moving of the Spirit. No one liked the woman at the well. There was sin in her life. Yet she was to be used of the Lord. The woman with an issue of blood said, “I’ve got to touch the hem of His garment.” Are we impotent or important? Faith moves the impossible. Naaman was healed when he obeyed and dipped himself in the muddy Jordan River. Right in the midst of stormy waters God will move. Don’t be ashamed of the gospel or afraid to tell your friends about Jesus. Don’t put anything in place of God. Keep your eyes upon Him. God doesn’t want us to do anything but worship Him and serve Him.

Fun! HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

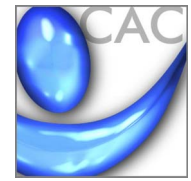

A minister in a new church was presenting the children's message. Because the sanctuary in the church had some magnificent stained glass windows, with each depicting a story from the Bible, the minister's message centered on how each of us is called to help make up the whole story of life. Like the pictures in the windows it takes many little panels of glass to make the whole picture. And then he said, "You see each one of us is a little pane." And then pointing to each child, "You're a pane. And you're a little pane. And you're a little pain. And..." It took a few moments before he realized why everyone was laughing.

The minister of a small church knew that improvements were needed on the church building. He suggested purchasing a chandelier, but the church members voted it down. "Why are you opposed to buying a chandelier?" the preacher questioned. "First, no one can spell it," said the spokesperson. "Second, no one can play it. And finally, what we really need is more light."
