Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Bro. and Sis. Norris ministered with great anointing to the whole church (all the Sunday School classes stayed together in the main sanctuary). Sis. Norris ministered using puppets, with stories and singing. She is a ventriloquist and she teaches such tools to Bible school students in St Louis, MO at Gateway College of Evangelism. Dr. Norris performed a powerful one-man drama that he wrote, with great effect. The drama began with Adam, the first man, before God breathed life into him, and then proceeded on a guided scriptural tour of all the seasons of life, in a performance that was emotionally touching and very enlightening. The beginning of life is like the spring. Then comes the summer of youth and getting married. This is followed by the fall of marriage and parenthood, leading finally to the winter of old age, culminating in death. American culture teaches us to fear death, but there is a spring awaiting us after death: Resurrection! The drama was very powerful & illuminating.	Bro. and Sis. Norris again ministered to us with great anointing. Sis. Norris brought more ministry using puppets, with stories and singing. Bro. Norris spoke using Romans 5:7-8. Jesus Christ took my place. The gospel of Jesus Christ is universal. It gives hope to the lost. Brother Norris brought volunteers from the crowd and had the first one demonstrate a person drowning in the depths of the sea. This is what a lost man is like without God's salvation. Bro. Norris then had each succeeding volunteer represent the various false religions of the world. Some scold or chide, others instruct or brag, and others debate and philosophize. But none truly help or offer salvation. For example, Buddhism says, "Maybe you will have better luck in future reincarnations." TM (Transcendental Meditation) tells us to, "Imagine a solution and meditate and maybe it will happen." Only Jesus Christ truly helps us. Only the truth of His gospel brings effective salvation. Praise God!	Elder David Harris preached, "It's Time for a Season Change" using Ecclesiastes 3:1: "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven." When we find ourselves at the end of ourselves, and we don't know how to go on, and we have discovered that we cannot achieve the victory based on our own strengths, it's time to allow God to change the season in us. One of the changes God is bringing to us as a church is a season of greater unity. We must not be jealous over one another or bitter or harsh to one another. It is comforting to know that the seasons of our lives and the events in our church are in the hands of the God of the universe. He is gracious, and compassionate. He is a long-suffering, faithful God. If tragedy strikes, we have but to wait patiently for the hour of redemption. We must trust in God to change the season for us. Now is His divinely appointed time. According to God's plan, it is coming to pass. Praise the Lord for His power to change us!

Praise God! Hannah Fryzel was filled with the Holy Ghost Sunday night!

A young boy in Sunday School was asked what commandment he would break if he told a lie against his friend. He replied, "The ninth one: Don't bear false witness." Then he was asked what commandment he would break if he took his friend's bicycle. He replied, "The eighth: Do not steal." Then he was asked what commandment he would break if he pulled his dog's tail. He hesitated, then said, "I don't know the number, but it goes like this: What God has joined together, let no man pull apart."
Gabe: "Why are you down?" Mike: "My sister said she wouldn't talk to me for two weeks." Gabe: "Why should that upset you?" Mike: "Today's the last day."
