Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Assistant Pastor David Harris preached using Psalm 23. The Lord is our great Shepherd. We don't have to want for anything. He makes us to lie down in green pastures. He leads us beside the still waters. He restores our soul. Though we may have to walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we don't have to fear evil. God is with us through all our trials. "And there is hope in thine end" (Jeremiah 31:17). What a glorious day it will be when we make it to the end! The Lord is coming soon. Some people walk through the shadow of death every day through sicknesses and addictions. What is your shadow that follows you around? We have grace and mercy. Life can throw us a curve ball right in the middle of our mountain. We don't know what God has for us in the future but we do know He is coming back for us. David was a man after God's heart because he knew how to ask forgiveness when he would fail.	Pastor Joseph preached "The Garment of Praise" using II Samuel 6:1-23 &amp; Isaiah 61:1-3. If you want to dance, clap, shout, etc. when you're praising God, then you won't be despised in this church. God wants our praise. We need to praise Him when things are going tough as well as when things are easy. Do not let your freedom to worship God go unclaimed. We are a holy priesthood and a royal nation. The pastor has to give an account to God for us. We need to be in church. If you have a position in the church, then you must be as faithful as possible. David's wife despised him when he danced before the Lord. Do not despise worship and praise. Jesus came to take away the spirit of heaviness and give us a garment of praise and to turn mourning into joy. When you come to church, dress to show respect to God. Be faithful to church attendance. When you come, find a place to pray and focus on God. Let us be in one place in one accord.	Pastor Joseph preached "Beholding the Glory of God" using Isaiah 40:3-5 as his text. God has used various means to reveal Himself to people (see Hebrews chapter 1). However, we have the supreme revelation in the Incarnation, in Jesus Christ. John 1:1, 14 teaches that Jesus is the very Word (Logos) of God made flesh. Logos is a Greek word that means "God's thought, plan, mind, self-expression, self-revelation." God's Word is His active power (see Psalm 107:20, and Isaiah 55:8-11). Not only is Jesus God's Word, but Jesus is also the brightness of God's glory. God revealed His glory in part to Moses (see Exodus 33:18-23). God's glory was seen in the Tabernacle (see Exodus 40:34-35), and also in the Temple (see II Chronicles 7:1-3). However, Hebrews 1:3 says, "Who [Jesus] being the brightness of his [God's] glory, and the express image of his person." The supreme revelation of God's glory is in Jesus.

A very religious couple was touring the Holy Land during the Christmas season and decided it would be very meaningful to them to spend Christmas Eve in Bethlehem, the birth place of Jesus. Arriving there, they searched high and low for a room, but none was available at any price. Finally, they pulled up in front of the Sheraton-Bethlehem and the husband got out of the car, telling his wife: “Stay here, sweetie. Let me see if I can do something for us.” He approached the desk and the clerk told him there were no rooms. “Sorry, sir. It’s Christmas Eve, our busiest time.” No matter how much the man offered to pay, the clerk said he had nothing. Finally, the man told the clerk, “I bet if I told you my name was Joseph, that the woman waiting in the car was called Mary, and that she had a newborn infant, you’d find us a room.” “Well,” stammered the clerk, “I-- I suppose so.” “Okay,” said the man. “I guarantee you; they’re not coming tonight, so we’ll take their room.” After the church service a little boy told the pastor, “When I grow up, I’m going to give you some money.” “Well, thank you,” the pastor replied, “But why?” “Because my daddy says you’re one of the poorest preachers we’ve ever had.”
