Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
Evangelist Justin Meadors preached "When I Consider The Heavens" using Psalm 8:3-9. We all experience mountains in our lives, times of joy and happiness, and also valleys in our lives, times of troubles when we don't know what we do. "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven." Worship and praise is a sweet smelling fragrance in the nostrils of God. Every song we sing, every testimony we give is sweet to God. The same breath that made Adam a living soul, that was with Moses and parted the Red Sea, that breathed upon a valley of dry bones and made them live is breathing upon us today. The breath of God can fill you with the Holy Ghost and change you. The arm of God will reach down and save us. The highlight of the life of Jesus was not the miracles He performed. It was when He stretched out His arms and died for us. The arm of God is not short that it cannot save. How excellent is the name of Jesus in all the earth!	Evangelist Justin Meadors preached "A Place Where No Man Is" using II Kings 7:3-11. We are 100% Apostolic. We are a Book of Acts church. Jesus is coming back for a church filled with zeal; for a church with signs and wonders. We need to witness for God. It is time for us to have revival. We need to have a relationship with God; to keep His Spirit within us. If you fall down, get back up. He can help us to rise above our failures. Arise, sing and rejoice. We must surrender all our mistakes to God, go on and live for Him. God will take away the stones in our lives so we can overcome. Walk in God's way. Let your cry be "Lord, lead me, drive me!" We must keep walking. Don't quit. If the four lepers had stopped walking because of hardships they would have never gotten to the Syrian camp. Because they didn't give up, they didn't die of hunger. If we desire to make it home with God we must keep walking no matter what obstacles the devil throws at us.	Pastor Joseph preached "The New Immortal" using Isaiah 9:1-7 and John 17:14-26. The church is comprised of imperfect people who are always trying to do better. Maturity doesn't mean you don't make a mistake. It is when you listen to God's Word and apply it to your life. Jesus prayed for us that we would be in unity with one another. Born again believers must not fight each other. The devil will tell you that your brother/sister doesn't care about you or is out to get you. Keep your guard up against the devil. We will have great victory when we fight the devil and not each other. We need to band together. If we have repented, been baptized, and received the Holy Ghost we are immortal in spirit. If we have aught against our brother, we must go to him. Have faith in one another. People are watching us. Does the world see us living a life of peace? A saint's house ought to be a house of peace. The love of God has a way of making us see others like Jesus does.

Fun! HUMOR Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

A grandmother was telling her little granddaughter what her own childhood was like: "We used to skate outside on a pond. I had a swing made from a tire; it hung from a tree in our front yard. We rode our pony. We picked wild raspberries in the woods." The little girl was wide-eyed, taking this in. At last she said, "I sure wish I'd gotten to know you sooner!"

My grandson was visiting one day when he asked, "Grandma, do you know how you and God are alike?" I mentally polished my halo while I asked, "No, how are we alike?" "You're both old," he replied.
