Last Sunday AM	Sunday PM	Wednesday
The Lord moved in such an awesome way that the entire Sunday School program was set aside. The Lord spoke to us through exhortations and prophetic utterances from several people in the congregation. One notable word of exhortation was from Bro. Ronnie Barker, who cited the Bible passage of II Kings 13:14-20, in which Joash, the young king, visited Elisha, the elderly, ailing prophet—just before the prophet's death. Elisha had Joash to open the window and shoot an arrow out of it. The prophet said the arrow represented the Lord's deliverance of the people from Syria. Then Elisha had the young king to smite the ground with arrows. The king smote the ground only three times, and then he stopped. The prophet was upset with the king's lack of zeal, and prophesied that the people's number of victories over Syria would only be three. If the king had smitten five or six times, their ultimate freedom from Syria would have been assured. We ought to not limit God by becoming satisfied and growing still after just two or three waves of His blessings. We must not stop short if we want to have complete victory! Worship is one way of smiting the ground.	Karl and Mary Smith and their son Gavin—visiting missionaries whose field of labor is South Africa—were with us. We were so blessed to host them. Brother Smith preached with a great anointing. His powerful message was entitled "Is There A Place For Me Within God's Kingdom?" He read a text from John 4, which tells about Jesus' conversation with the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well. Brother Smith showed how the woman quickly went from viewing Jesus as an arrogant Jew who would probably have nothing to do with her, to viewing Him as a prophet of God, and finally to viewing Him as the Messiah that was prophesied in the ancient Holy Scriptures. She questioned him about the proper place to worship God. (Both locations she mentioned were out of her reach, as a scorned woman of sin.) Jesus told her that true worshippers worship the Father "in spirit and in truth." This word "truth" means more than doctrinal accuracy. It includes total honesty. She did not try to hide her sin from him. No one can; yet trying puts a wall between us and God.	Elder Lorren Godwin spoke on praising God before receiving the victory. God sometimes just likes us to praise him before he performs a miracle. God also expect us to join in unity with our fellow saints. Division is one of the greatest killers of a move of God. When we are at odds with our brother or sister we prevent God from moving in our lives. When Solomon dedicated the temple, the Bible says that when the singers and musicians were as one, the glory of God fell so strongly that the priests could not stand to minister. If we will unify, God will do awesome things in our lives, within our families and our church. Let's not let anyone succeed in sowing discord between us. Be as one!

Fun! Bible Trivia

@@@○○○○○○○○ Easy

What did Jacob make for his son, Joseph, because he loved him so much?

Submit your answer to Sis Rhonda at: news@cac.us.com

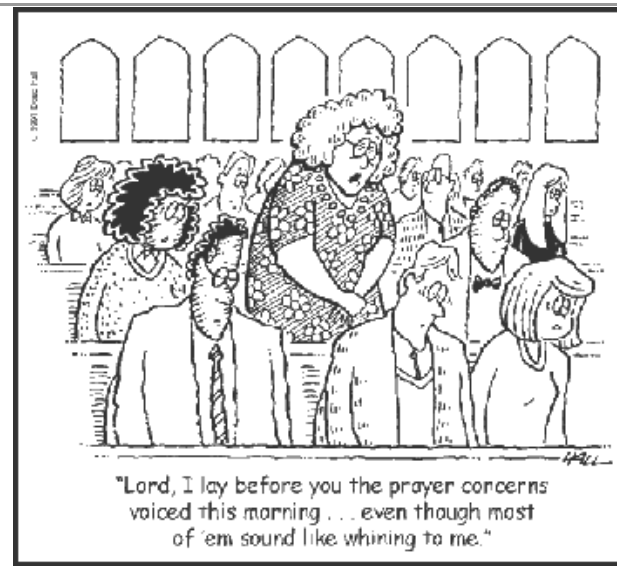

Last week's answer: Asher would produce food worthy of royalty (Gen. 49:20).

Answer to the easier question: Joseph (found in Genesis 37:3).

Fun! HUMOR

Send in your funny stories to news@cac.us.com

A large, well-built man visited the parsonage and asked to see the pastor's wife, who was known for her charity. With a voice breaking with emotion he said to her, "I'd like to draw your attention to the terrible plight of a poor family in this district. The father is dead, the mother is too ill to work, and the nine children are starving. They are about to be turned out into the cold streets unless someone pays their rent which is $400 in arrears." "How frightful!" exclaimed the vicar's wife. "May I ask who you are?" The enormous visitor wiped his eyes with his handkerchief and wailed, "I'm their landlord."

Pics from the Joseph family's vacation in Virginia.
(Thanks to the Bargo's for donating the cabin stay!)

Beautiful sunset on our first night in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley region.

A real log cabin, with two bedrooms, living room, dining room, & full kitchen.

Adena and Kieran petting Jacob, a turkey who loves to be petted & photographed.

Gavin got to ride a pony! He was a little scared at first, but he warmed up quickly.

Pastor Joseph and kids petting a beautiful stallion with Clydesdale-sized hooves.

Shopping! Elliana loved the humor in this. It used to be $2. Now it's on sale for... $2!
