Last Sunday AM

Elder David Harris Jr. preached a message entitled "Healing" using Isaiah 53:4-5 for his text. The prophet Isaiah prophesied that Jesus Christ would come and be God robed in flesh. He took our sins upon Himself, suffered and died for us. We are saved by the love and mercy He showed us by dying on the cross. He can heal our emotional situations and our physical ailments. He will fix our every need. God takes care of our spiritual wellbeing before He remedies our physical situation. God will heal the backslider. In any kind of situation, God can help us. He sees every problem that we have, and he knows the answer. We need God to work on us—not just on the outside but from the inside out—emotionally, mentally, physically and spiritually. We need to let God touch us so we can help others with compassion. Our world is full of hurting people trying to fill a void. People are so full of addictions, ranging from drugs to technology. We need an old-fashioned revival where God pours out His Spirit and souls are set free. Let Jesus come into your life and He will fix it.

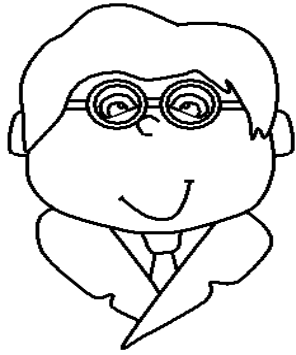

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Lessons Learned from Noble Romans, Part 2" from the tenth chapter of the Book Acts. Cornelius was a Roman centurion, which was a respectable rank. However, he was more than just a soldier. He prayed to God always, and gave alms to the poor. Our identity should be more than a job or career we have in this life. It should ultimately be that we are a servant of God; one who serves and loves God with all our heart. Jacob had a birth-name and identity of being a cheater. He lived "down" to his name until he was determined to change by God's help. Then he wrestled with God (via an angel), and the Lord changed his name and his life. Cornelius was a devout man who feared God. However, he was a Gentile. Even though he had no standing as far as salvation was concerned, the Lord revealed to the Apostle Peter that God is no respecter of persons. What God calls clean, don't call unclean. Peter preached to Cornelius' household, and the Holy Ghost fell on them all. If we love God and want to serve Him, He will make a way. God had always planned to allow Gentiles in His kingdom. If we love God, He will accept us no matter what nation we are from.

Wednesday

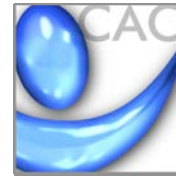

Pastor Joseph preached "The Father of the Faithful" using Romans 4:16-18. Even though we may not have an earthly father who is godly, we all can have a godly heritage in the church, through Abraham who is father of the faithful. We can have a great heritage in God regardless of how we were born and raised. Salvation is by grace through faith. God has brought us into His Kingdom and given us salvation. If we praise God in a bad situation, God can change the situation. The Lord has given all believers a duty to visit the widows and the fatherless. Through our obedience to this, God sets the solitude in families. Thank God for our godly heritage through Abraham, "Father of the Faithful."

The story is told of a father of five children who came home with a toy. He summoned his children and asked which of them should be given the present. "Who is the most obedient one here? Who never talks back to Mom and does everything that Mom says to do?" He inquired. There were a few seconds of silence, and then all of the children said in one accord: "You play with it Daddy!" "At the first church that I pastored, I had the job of mixing feed to supplement my income. For a period of about two weeks, each day that I came home from work, my two young boys would look at me, smile, and say, 'Boy, Dad, you sure are dusty!' I would reply, 'Yes, I sure am dusty.' Then I would get cleaned up. I didn't think too much of this until I was washing my car and saw my oldest son doing something very strange. He was picking up the gravel and stones that were in our driveway and rubbing them into his pants. I asked him, 'Want are you doing?' He replied, 'I want to be dusty like you, Dad!' I realized that if a child would look up to his father for being dusty and want to copy his father, a child could look up to his father and follow him for anything. What are you passing on to your son?"

Happy Father's Day, Dad!

A young successful attorney said, "The greatest gift I ever received was a gift I got one Christmas when my dad gave me a small box. Inside was a note saying, 'Son, this year I will give you 365 hours, an hour every day after dinner. It's yours. We'll talk about what you want to talk about, we'll go where you want to go, play what you want to play. It will be your hour!'"
"My dad not only kept his promise," he said, "but every year he renewed it — and it's the greatest gift I ever had in my life. I am the result of his time."
