Last Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached on faithfulness. No matter what, remain faithful to what God has called us to do. An ocean has many rivers flowing into it, but none flowing out of it, yet it constantly renews itself. It constantly faces earthquakes, storms, oils spills, ship wrecks and many other disasters, but it never stops sending up vapor to form clouds to cause rain to fill streams, to flow into rivers, to flow into larger rivers, all flowing back into the ocean. An ocean never worries what is going on elsewhere on earth. Rivers can dry up, lakes can become desert, but the ocean always remains the same. It doesn't compare itself to anything else. Too many times we quit doing what we were called to do, fail to be what we are called to be, due to comparing ourselves to others. The only person we need to compare ourselves to is our former self. We are unique in all the world. No matter what happens to us, God expects us to be faithful and continually do what we are called to do. We cannot allow others to dictate our failure. We cannot allow others' successes to cause us to quit. We cannot allow circumstances to change us. We must continually be a Christian.

Sunday PM

Elder David Harris Jr. preached "What Garment Are You Wearing?" using Mark 10:46-50. Blind Bartimaeus wore a garment that distinguished him as being a blind beggar. When Jesus called to him, he took off that garment, by faith that he was going to be healed. He never wore that garment again. Spiritually, people wear beggars' garments today. People have "stuff" hanging on them such as sin, lust, disease, addictions, vanity, financial attacks, spiritual attacks, pride, anger, depression, fear, insecurity and jealousy. We need to come to Jesus and cast all this stuff off. He died on the cross to give us total freedom. Repent! Stay clean. In Matthew 22:11, Jesus asked a man why he had come to the wedding without the right garment on. Many are weighed down by sins and things of this world. No sin will enter Heaven. We must be a new creature. Cast off sins. God will give us a new garment. He can rid us of our past, our hurts, sins, problems and fears. Don't let anything that doesn't belong attach itself to your garment.

Wednesday

Pastor Joseph preached "The Preacher and the Power of the Gospel" from Romans 9:20-21 & 1:7-18. In tough times, it is natural to ask why, but be very careful about questioning "against" God. It's not a sin to ask why, but don't get bitter or backslide. Trust God. Men may think that there is nothing wrong with their sin. Some try to justify their sin by claiming "God made me this way." That is not true; remember, the curse of Adam's sin affects all. Those who continue in sin are sending themselves to hell, ruining themselves on the way. Paul was tormented by a messenger of Satan sent to buffet him. He sought the Lord thrice to be rid of it. God said His grace was enough. He knows best. Trust Him. Even when people were trying to wreck his life, God's grace was enough. Don't fear!

A mother was preparing pancakes for her sons, Kevin, 5, and Ryan, 3. The boys began to argue over who would get the first pancake. Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. She said, "If Jesus were sitting here, He would say, 'Let my brother have the first pancake. I can wait.'" Kevin turned to his younger brother and said, "Ryan, you be Jesus."

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a church elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The teacher made a note, and put it on the apple tray: "Take only ONE. God is watching."
Farther along the lunch line, at the other end of the table, was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies. A child had written a note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."
