Last Sunday AM – Mother's Day

Pastor Joseph's Mother's Day message was from Genesis 3:40. Eve, the mother of all living, experienced all the joys and sorrows that all later mothers would know. She evidently had many sons and daughters, and probably lived to see many generations of grandchildren. With Adam, she had even known paradise, but sin had entered their lives when they rebelled against God's Word. God decreed, "In sorrow thou shalt bring forth children." Her greatest sorrow was no doubt when Cain slew Abel, and as with another mother whose Son's innocent blood was shed many years later, it was like a sword piercing her own soul (Luke 2:35). It seems likely that after Eve's first great sin, she later trusted and obeyed God's Word. Hopefully she was forgiven and saved. Later, as the mother of Seth, she taught him and her grandson, Enos, about the Lord and His promises. "Then began men to call upon the name of the Lord" (Genesis 4:26), which we still fulfill today (by water baptism in Jesus name). Many believers look forward to seeing their own mothers again someday, when they can restate their love and appreciation for all they did in bearing us, and in caring, teaching, and praying for us. But it will be a wonderful experience to meet our first mother, also, as well as Sarah, Hannah, Mary, and all the other godly mothers of old. If your mother is living, honor her always!

Last Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "The Answer" from Psalm 11 & Colossians 3:1-6, 17-25, and 4:1-6. The world is very anxious to discard what the Bible says. They use every manner of flawed logic to justify doing so. We are living in a wicked day when evil is being called good and good is being called evil. The foundations are being destroyed. What can we do? We must charge forward and evangelize the lost. The world does not have any help for hurting, sin-cursed people, but the church has the Gospel. We have the power of God, the blood of Jesus, the Spirit of the Lord, and the Word of God, which does help hurting people. We need not be ashamed of what we have. We must prepare ourselves to be able to give an answer to every man for the reason that we have for the hope that lies within us.

Last Wednesday

Sister Hannah Fryzel preached "The One Body of Christ" from I Cor. 6:15-20 and 12:12-27. Each of us is connected. Any sin hurts all, not just one. Just as infection can spread, a sin can spread and damage the whole body. A believer's sin can distract others, causing them to get caught up in the drama of the sin of others. We need to walk close to God and participate in body ministry. Don't just squeak by. Don't be dead weight in the Body of Christ! Elder Keith Fought then preached "Have Faith in God!" from Mark 11:22-26. Faith is the foundation for life in the Kingdom. There are four conditions of a successful prayer of faith: Contrition, Whole-Heartedness, Righteousness, and Obedience. In the past few services, there has been a theme of the Lord calling His people to faithfulness!
