Last Sunday AM - Pentecostal Sunday!

Pastor Joseph preached "Feast of Shavuot" (Pentecost) using Acts 2:1-4 as his text. The Day of Pentecost in Acts 2 was a holiday that Jews had been celebrating for centuries, ever since the Lord gave them the Torah (writings given through Moses) when they met God at Mt. Sinai in the wilderness. God assigned significance to that day, which He then amplified and increased by later using the same date to pour out His Spirit on the Church in its infancy in Jerusalem under the leadership of the Apostles, after Jesus' ascension. The giving of the Torah was God's Word written "outwardly" on tables of stone and on scrolls. The Holy Ghost baptism is God's Word being written "inwardly" in fleshly tables of the heart! The baptism of the Holy Ghost is not some added blessing that just makes things somewhat better for a Christian. This experience is foundational, essential, and crucial to salvation and to being a Christian. Furthermore, the baptism of the Spirit is a personal experience, intended by God for each and every believer living during the age of the New Covenant Church. If you have not received this wonderful experience, you're selling yourself short! Claim what God has for you. Experience Pentecost!

Last Sunday PM

The Ashley Vaughn family, our special guests, blessed us as they ministered in song. Then Brother Vaughn preached a wonderful message from the Word of God. His title was "Where Mighty Men Sleep." He started at Acts 12:1-12. King Herod had wrongfully arrested the Apostle Peter. His execution was planned. The church was in intercessory prayer for Peter's release. He faced double trouble. Two chains and two guards held him behind two gates. Yet it took only one God sending one angel to get him out! What was Peter doing during this time? Sleeping in the jail cell so soundly that the angel had to be very firm to wake him up! Daniel 6:16-22 reveals how calm Daniel was in the midst of the lions' den. Can you imagine him reclining against a ferocious beast? The very thing meant to destroy can become your pillow! In Genesis 28:10-22, Jacob slept on a rock for his pillow! It was a place where God was! God gave him dreams that night! He turned his pillow rock into a praise altar! In Matthew 8:18-24, Jesus was asleep in the storm. Rejoice in the Lord always (Philippians 4:4), not just when things are good. That's mighty!

Last Wednesday – ACA Awards Ceremony & Graduation

Each and every student of Apostolic Christian Academy earned awards and all received special recognition. One ACA student, Sister Natoshia Ramsey, was especially honored as she received her diploma. We also honored two other CAC members who graduated from other schools: Zach Sandy and Eric McClain. Pastor Joseph delivered a baccalaureate, entitled "Come Down" from Luke 19:1-10 (the story Zacchaeus). People feel they must "climb" to earn fame, fortune, or even salvation. Yet Jesus ascended the cross to save us. To us He says, "Come down." The secret to true happiness is not being a master served by others, but in following Christ's example of being a servant, blessing and serving others. There is nothing wrong with working hard to be excellent and to do well, but remember that lasting joy is not mere "happiness" over money, possessions, promotions, or fame. Genuine fulfillment comes from loving and serving God, and in so doing, loving and serving people. Don't waste your life obsessing over the wrong goals!
