Sunday (one service only, due to bad weather)

Elder Godwin preached from Genesis 29:32-35. Leah (the older of two sisters) was not as attractive to Jacob. He was smitten with Rachel (the younger sister). The girls' father had to 'trick' Jacob into marrying the older first, before he was finally permitted to marry the younger too. But while Rachel went as barren for the longest time, Leah gave birth to one son after another. In each of the first three births, she named that son with a focus on hopefully gaining the true love and devotion of Jacob. Only in the birth of the fourth son did she finally give up on pleasing man, by determining to praise God in spite of her circumstance of being the lesser-loved wife. For the longest time, her attention was focused on the negative in her situation, instead of the positive. This was reflected in the naming of the sons, and the parents' views of the sons affected who they became in their older years. Parents, be careful how you speak to and think of your children. Your attitudes and words are shaping them for life! The two most stark examples of the sons are Rueben and Judah, the former thought little of, and he lived down to those perceptions, and Judah, thought highly of and he lived up to those perceptions. Let us always seek to focus on the good and not dwell on the bad!

Wednesday

Sis. Hannah Sandy preached "Who Do You Serve?" from Jude 1:4-11 & 17-19 and I John 5:21. People in this world are serving gods who can do nothing for them. There is only one God who can do all things. We need to give God our all. Anything we put before God is an idol. We need to give Him 100% of ourselves. Some sit in church and send texts on mobile devices. Are you letting your cell phone be your idol? We need to be willing to give God time. Set time to pray – an extra 10 minutes in the morning will help you fight off the devil through the day. Flee idols! Elder Baron Claypool preached from Joshua 3:14-17, II Kings 2: 8-14 & Mark 4:35-39. These are three different mentions in the Bible of people crossing over to the other side. We may not know what is going to befall us on the other side but keep going forward with Jesus. Trust in Him and He will help you in your time of distress. The disciples didn't know why they had to cross to the other side, nevertheless they got in the boat with Jesus. There arose a great storm. God doesn't always tell us about our journey, but if we have Jesus in the boat with us everything will be alright. Allow Jesus to change you, rather than you trying to change Him. We need to get to the other side.

Thursday & Friday

The Capital City Youth Convention was amazing. The Lord's presence flowed so powerfully. The ministry of Bro. Lee Stoneking was outstanding beyond words. Bro. Jacob Tapia was also a blessing. Quite a few CAC members were able to attend. Several youth from different parts of the state were newly filled with the Holy Ghost. If you missed the event you would be blessed to obtain media copies!

My sixth grader asked me to help her with her homework. I said, "Sure." After all, how complicated can math be at twelve years old? She told me she had to create a polynomial. I said, "I pylo what?" Needless to say we started tutoring the next week. Now she goes on Tuesdays and I go Saturdays.
