Last Sunday – One service at 2:00 PM due to bad weather

CAC's former pastor, Rev. Terry Null, preached a powerful message about "Favor, Restoration, and Recovery." If we want to see (literally, in the natural) the promised fulfillment over "there," we must first spiritually see (by faith) the unfulfilled promise even while we are still "here." God used the preacher to deliver to us (both as individuals and as a corporate body) a threefold promise of (1) favor (with both man and God), (2) restoration of things lost or stolen during the trial of our faith, and (3) a total recovery (even including healing of the body). This service was tremendously anointed of God, and many were touched.

Wednesday

CAC's former pastor, Rev. Terry Null, preached "Act As If..." from Genesis 13. Bro. Null again reiterated, "If you don't 'see' it here, you won't see it there." God's promise to Abram was "I will give...." His wording to Joshua (later) was "I have given." God spoke to Abram, telling him to walk up and down in the land, northward, southward, eastward, and westward, and promising that eventually all that land would be given to him (i.e. to Abram's offspring, which would be as numerous as the dust of the earth). Bro. Null was inspired of the Lord to draw a parallel for us in that command and promise. There is no limit on God. Hebrews 11:1 says, "Now faith is...."—a present-tense statement of existence, even for that which does not yet manifest. Don't settle for putting a saddle on disappointment and doubt, and riding back to the stall, consoling yourself that you did your best. God brought Abram out! He also made him very wealthy. Likewise, much later, God brought Abram's descendants out, and also caused them to be made wealthy at the expense of the Egyptians. The Bible says the wealth of the wicked is laid up for the righteous. God is able to bless!

Friday & Saturday

Evangelist Mark McCool preached powerfully in both of these services, inspiring faith in the hearts of the hearers. The Lord signally blessed all aspects of the "Fresh Oil" time of anointing at CAC, and the spiritual man (i.e. the inward man) was renewed in strength and determination. Many visitors attended, some coming to both of the services, and greatly enjoyed their time of worship with us. Both messages touched on faith including, even requiring, a response from us and/or being tied to an expectation in our hearts. For instance, last night's message was entitled "This is the Moment You've Been Waiting For" from Acts 3. The lame man was laid daily at the Gate Beautiful, and he saw Peter and John going into the Temple and asked for alms of them. They fixed their eyes on him, and he looked on them, expecting something of them. They used that moment of expectation to speak a word of faith, and this resulted in the man being healed. God responded to the faith in the hearts of the people, and there were many who were touched physically and renewed spiritually. If you missed these services, you missed out! Consider making a donation to the media ministry and requesting CDs or DVDs.

Little Johnny was overheard talking to himself as he strutted through the backyard, wearing his baseball cap and toting a ball and bat. "I'm the greatest hitter in the world," he announced. Then, he tossed the ball in the air, swung at it, and missed. "Strike One!" he yelled. Undaunted, he picked up the ball and said again, "I'm the greatest hitter in the world!" He tossed the ball into the air. When it came down he swung again and missed. "Strike Two!" he cried. The boy then paused a moment to examine his bat and ball carefully. He spit on his hands and rubbed them together. He straightened his cap and said once more, "I'm the greatest hitter in the world!" Again he tossed the ball up in the air and swung at it. He missed. "Strike Three!" "Wow!" he exclaimed. "I'm the greatest pitcher in the world too!"
