Sunday AM

Elder Les Benedum preached "They Are Coming" from John 11:32-44. Some people come to church, yet they are dead in their sins. They come to church to occupy the pews and to be seen. They just go through the motions, but their heart is far from God. Just as Lazarus was dead, we were all bound when we first come to church. God called us to loose people. We must fast and pray, not only for the sinner out in the world, but also for people sitting in our church pews professing to be saved. The church is the outreach for Jesus Christ. It's up to the church to continue in what God has set free. New babes in Christ need the prayers and encouragement from saints in the church. Anything you do for the Kingdom of God is a ministry whether it be praying, ministering to the sick, cutting the grass, cleaning the church or changing the light bulbs. We can all do something for God.

Sunday PM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "He is God" from II Chronicles 32:12-14. When God speaks, things happen. God spoke the world into existence. He spoke "Peace, be still" and the storm ceased. He spoke and the dead were raised. He is awesome! God overcame the devil. The devil may never quit trying to get us to sin, but we must stand our ground and keep being faithful to God. The devil took all of Job's family and livestock, even put sickness on Job's body, yet Job remained faithful to God. We must stand on God's Word and remain faithful. We are overcomers with God. Greater is He that is in us than he that is in the world. God is greater than anything that comes against us. Resist the devil and he will flee. Stand on the Word of God. Whatever you may have to face, stand on what God has told you. He has already overcome the devil. We can have victory through Him.

Wednesday

Bro. Ashley Vaughn preached "Why Are We Still Here?" from Lamentations 3:21-23: "It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness." When we feel as if we are almost done in, it's then we realize that we have not perished. The word consumed means "an end, to be all gone, to be spent, to be wasted, to cease." The trials that we face seem at times to "consume" us, but we know that the Lord's mercy is always there to save us and preserve us. Also know that the things that we face are only temporary. Psalm 30:10 says, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." If you can only make it to the morning, there you will find fresh mercies. The fact that he said mercies, plural, means that he will cover all of our trials and tests. Luke wrote in Acts 27:29 that they "wished for the day" meaning they knew if he made it until morning that all would be well. II Corinthians 4:16-18 give us hope of an eternal morning in which our earthly sufferings will give way to an eternal reward Praise God!

After church, Billy told his parents he had to go and talk to the minister right away. They agreed, and the pastor greeted the family. "Pastor," Billy said, "I heard you say today that our bodies came from the dust." "That's right, Billy, I did," he said. "And I heard you say that when we die, our bodies go back to dust." "Yes, I'm glad you were listening," the pastor replied. "Why do you ask?" "Well you better come over to our house right away and look under my bed, 'cause there's someone either coming or going!"

2013 NAYC Praise Reports!

This past Wed-Fri was the UPCI's biennial "North American Youth Congress" in Louisville, KY. 20,000 people were in attendance. It is the largest Apostolic meeting in U.S./Canada. UPCI's General Superintendent, Rev David K. Bernard, reported, "NAYC had great worship, preaching, and prayer. My session for young & aspiring ministers was set up for 2,500, but we had to add 200 chairs!"

During NAYC, 500 students blessed the hungry and hurting in Louisville in an effort called Project 22:39 (after Matthew 22:39 that admonishes "Love thy neighbor as thyself"). The mayor of Louisville met with them outside of the convention center to thank them for their service to the City of Louisville.

During the Thursday night service, Edith, an employee in the arena at the KFC YUM Convention Center, received the baptism of the Holy Ghost! Praise God! Others were baptized after the service in the pool at the Days Inn Hotel (see pic at left) ... and much more.
