Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph preached "A Place of Shelter" from Psalm 91:1 & Isaiah 4:2-6. We cannot hide our sins. "For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested" (Mark 4: 22). We can't run from our sins. They will follow us wherever we go. We need a shelter from the consequences of our sins. Where can we find this? Jesus is the answer. He went to the cross and paid the ultimate debt for our sins. All we have to do is come unto Him, repent of our sins, be baptized in the name of Jesus and receive the Holy Ghost. The Holy Ghost will give us power to live a new life. We can feel secure even during times of trouble because we abide under the shadow of the Almighty. We can live a victorious life when we dwell in the secret place of the most High.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Salt & Light" from Matthew 5:13-16. We are the salt and light of the world. We cannot force people to repent and come to church. Jesus said, "For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them" (Luke 9: 56). Jesus gave to every man "a place for repentance." We can't be forceful in winning souls to God, but we can be a light to them by living a holy life. Because of us living for God and witnessing to people, they won't be able to say that they never knew about God. Shine the light of truth to others. Speak the truth in love. You can love people without agreeing that they are right. Be faithful to God at all times. "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man" (Ecclesiastes 12:12). We must stay focused on loving, serving, and pleasing God.

Wednesday

Pastor Joseph preached about the Christmas story from I Timothy 3:16. The salvation story of Jesus can be seen from His conception, to the birth in the manger, to the cross, resurrection, ascension, and beyond. God was manifest in the flesh as the baby Jesus, who was born of a virgin. Birthdates were not specifically recorded back then, but His arrival was written about extensively. Christmas paved the way for His crucifixion, which was the sacrificial atonement for our sins. Christ is formed in us through the indwelling of His Spirit. The Holy Ghost puts the Christmas spirit in us. We should live for Him not just on December 25, but every day of the year. Christmas is not about material gain, but a time of celebration with family and friends. Christmas is love. God is love. The Christmas story is the foundation for repentance, baptism in Jesus name, and the infilling of the Holy Ghost. God looked beyond our sins and gave us the Christmas promise. We need to confess our sins and accept Him as our Savior.

Is Jesus Still a Baby?

A girl of ten years went with a group of family and friends to see the Christmas light displays at various locations throughout the city. At one church, they stopped and got out to look more closely at a beautifully done nativity scene. "Isn't that beautiful?" said the little girl's grandmother. "Look at all the animals, Mary, Joseph and the baby, Jesus." "Yes, Grandma," replied the granddaughter. "It is really nice. But there is only one thing that bothers me. Isn't baby Jesus ever going to grow up? He's the same size he was last year."
