Sunday AM

Rev. Terry Null preached "Beyond The Iron Gate" from Acts 12: 5-10. We have all been in a season of life that felt like a spiritual prison. Thoughts go through our mind such as: I didn't ask for this—What does this mean?—Why?—Is there a break between trials? In such times, we must believe God. He knows what He is doing. Trust God. He knows what is going to happen beforehand. We can trust and praise God while we're going through a transition or a storm. Peter was in literal prison, bound between two soldiers, but prayer without ceasing was made for him. He was asleep in a blanket of peace. Faith overcomes fear. As the angel of God walked him out, the chains fell off. In the midst of his chaos, there was a miracle. The church was praying for Peter. They never gave up until something happened. CAC is going through a transition. We can trust God as we go through the fiery trials for we are a praying church.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Heaven On Earth" from Matthew 1:21-23 & Revelation 21:1-8. Sin separates man from God. Man cannot save himself. The plan of God can redeem us from our sins. That plan always existed. In the beginning was the "Word" (Greek: logos—meaning "thought or plan.") The Word was God. The Word became flesh when Jesus was conceived in Mary's womb. This led to the first Christmas: "And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins" (Matthew 1:21). God always fulfills His plan. God brought forth a human manifestation of Himself to save people from their sins. From the time Jesus was conceived there has been a touch of Heaven on earth—first because of His own person, and since Pentecost, because of His Spirit in the Church. If we maintain a holy life for God—if we live and serve God on earth, we serve as a touch of Heaven on earth.

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "If You Could See Where God Has Brought Me From" using Genesis 2:7 as his text. Not only are we "fearfully and wonderfully made" physically, mentally, and emotionally, but also God has breathed life into us spiritually through salvation. God's gracious hand at work in our lives gives us abundant cause to praise Him. Others may not know the whole story, but if they could only see where God has brought us from, they would understand our praise! Elder Baron Claypool preached a call to repentance entitled "Cleansing the Chambers" using Nehemiah 13:4-9 for his text. Tobiah, an enemy of godly, righteous Jews, had charmed his way into favor with Eliashib the priest, who gave Tobiah a large chamber in the Temple in which to live. What a travesty to give the chambers of our heart and life over to sin, allowing it to dwell there when God had previously set us free. Nehemiah removed the wicked man from the chamber, and stopped the people from breaking the Sabbath. Whenever we have any area of sin in our life, we need to rise up like Nehemiah and cleanse our heart by repentance!

God Isn't Deaf

Two young boys were spending the night at their grandparents' house the week before Christmas. At bedtime, the two boys knelt beside their beds to say their prayers. The younger one began praying at the top of his lungs: "I PRAY FOR A NEW BICYCLE... I PRAY FOR A NEW NINTENDO..." His older brother leaned over, nudged him, and said, "Why are you shouting? God isn't deaf." To this the little brother replied, "No, but Grandma is!"

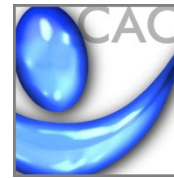

Fun! Stan 'N' Isaac The shenanigans never end.

 Where Miracles Live!

From Pastor Joseph:
 "I laughed until I hurt! The 2014 CAC Christmas Party was a truly wonderful event. Thank you, Christian Apostolic Church family! Your kindness in blessing and honoring us was overwhelming. We love you all! PS: Your song, "12 Things My Pastor Said To Me," really nailed it. It was hilarious!"
