Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "To Know Of A Surety" from Genesis 15:12-14. Abraham knew of a surety that his seed was going to be blessed even though it looked impossible. When Joseph was sold into slavery and then put in prison, he knew of a surety that God was with him. When Daniel was thrown into a lions' den, he knew of a surety that God was with him. We need to trust God in times of discouragement and despair. He has never failed! When God makes you a promise, it will come to pass. We must keep going on and serve Him in our darkest hour. We must stand on the promises of God. He has a plan for your life. Things may not happen when you think they should, but you can know of a surety that God will keep His promises. "For I am the Lord, I change not" (Malachi 3:6). "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever" (Hebrews 13:8). People may question us "Are you sure?" Yes, we know of a surety that God will keep His promise. "For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us" (II Corinthians 1:20).

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Born Again" from John 3:1-8. God always had an overarching and eternal plan in mind before He ever formed the universe. In every age, or dispensation, of God's grace on earth, men have utterly fouled up what God offered. For this reason God knew that the old covenant wasn't viable, so He made a new and better covenant. Jesus was born as God manifest in the flesh. He died on the cross as a sacrifice for our sins. The crucifixion was the plan of God. Yet, He looked beyond that and saw the resurrection. Jesus Christ lives today! His eternal plan is for us to be born again. Jesus told Nicodemus, "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God" (John 3:3). "Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of Heaven" (John 3:5). "Ye must be born again" (John 3:7). We must repent and lay aside our worldly ways of living, be water baptized in Jesus name and receive the Holy Ghost. When you receive the Holy Ghost, there will be a sound: "thou hearest the sound thereof ...so is every one that is born of the Spirit" (John 3:8). On the Day of Pentecost, they spoke with tongues when the Holy Ghost was poured upon them. (Acts 2) This eternal plan extends to you and me. We must be born again!

Wednesday

The Elders of the church did an amazing job of tag-team preaching. There were awesome and uplifting messages from Elder Lorren Godwin, Elder John Sandy, Elder Rusty Sandy, Elder Zach Sandy, Elder Baron Claypool and Elder Les Benedum. Their messages consisted of power, revival, and living a dedicated life to God. The connecting themes of all their portions of preaching were revival and evangelism. Revival is when the church is made alive with God's salvation and glowing with His anointing. This comes by the Holy Ghost, and empowers us to witness for Him! Both these themes are portrayed in Acts 1:8, their leading text.

A woman had just returned to her home from an evening of church services, when she was startled by an intruder. She caught the man in the act of robbing her home of its valuables and yelled, "Stop! Acts 2:38!" The burglar stopped in his tracks. The woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. As the officer cuffed the man to take him in, he asked the burglar: "Why did you just stand there? All the old lady did was yell a scripture to you." "Scripture?" replied the burglar. "She said she had an Ax and Two 38s!"

Where Miracles Live!

Sanctity of Human Life
 Sunday, January 18,
 2015

President Ronald Reagan first issued a presidential proclamation on January 16, 1984, designating Sunday, January 22, 1984 as National Sanctity of Human Life Day, noting that it was the 11th anniversary of Roe v. Wade (and Doe v. Bolton), in which the U.S. Supreme Court issued a ruling that legalized abortion in America without regulation, effectively even up until the time of birth, overturning many laws already on the books that had previously regulated abortion. President Reagan was a strong pro-life advocate who stated that in the infamous decision the high court had "struck down our laws protecting the lives of unborn children." Annually thereafter, Reagan issued the proclamation designating Sanctity of Human Life Day to be the third Sunday in January, which represents the closest Sunday to the original date. His successor, President George H. W. Bush, continued the annual proclamation throughout his presidency. Bush's successor, President Bill Clinton, discontinued the practice throughout his eight years in office, but Bush's son and Clinton's successor, George W. Bush, resumed the proclamation, and did so every year of his presidency. President Barack Obama has never issued any proclamation for the event, and he has proved to be the most pro-abortion president in our nation's history. However, despite this, the Pro-Life movement has continued to declare and honor this event even in those years when a presidential proclamation was absent. With taxpayer money & Obamacare's mandated health insurance taxes going to fund abortions, against the will of many Americans, and in some cases without their knowledge, it has never been more needful for Christians to pray, vote, and get involved in such a moral issue.
