Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "The Best Is Yet To Come" from Joel 2:23-32. God always keeps His promises, though people don't like to wait, and they get frustrated if things aren't handed to them right now. God is in control! We must be patient. When God promises us something, sometimes it will happen right now, but sometimes we must trust God and wait. Get this mindset: "God, You told me this is going to happen. I don't understand why it hasn't happened yet, but I'm going to trust you." The best is yet to come! After David was anointed to be king, he had to endure battles with Saul before it happened. There may be situations that arise in our life and you think that there is no way that good will come of it, but if God has told you that something will happen, it will. He has already purposed that it's going to happen. Hold onto the promises of God. The best is yet to come!

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Abundance of Rain" from I Kings 18:41. God's goodness allows blessings on all, even the wicked, although God's patience has limits. Jesus came to give life. He came to love, heal, and save. King Ahab and Queen Jezebel led God's people in Baal worship. Wicked leadership is devastating because most people are like sheep—"sheeple" who just follow in sin "regardless." The Prophet Elijah stood up for the one true God and offered godly leadership. In today's wicked culture, folks often pine for a great, special leader to come help us, such as an Elijah or a Ronald Reagan, but the Bible tells us in the New Testament that Elijah was a normal man just like you or I. Don't wring your hands wishing God would send someone. He sent you and I! It's time to stand up! Offer godly leadership! No matter how hopeless things look today, trust God and work for revival. We can say like Elijah, "I hear the sound of an abundance of rain." God is good, all the time—and all the time, God is good! Trust Him and lead on!

Wednesday

Elder Zach Sandy preached "I'm Going to the Enemy's Camp" from Judges 6:11-17. When God makes us a promise, it will happen. The enemy doesn't want us to know that we are going to be victorious. When God promised Gideon victory, nothing stopped him from going to the enemy's camp. The devil will come at you at your weakest point. He will try to get you to back up on God's Word. Nevertheless, stand strong. Go forward in God.

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "It's Happening" from Joshua 21:45. If God makes you a promise, He will see it through. His promises never die. His promises overcome whatever the enemy throws at you.

It was Palm Sunday, but because of a sore throat, 5-year-old Johnny stayed home from church with a sitter. When the family returned home, they were carrying several palm fronds. Johnny asked them what they were for. "People held them over Jesus' head as he walked by," his father told him. "Wouldn't you know it," Johnny fumed, "the one Sunday I don't go and he shows up."
