Sunday AM — Father's Day

Pastor Joseph preached "The Cry For A Father" From II Kings 2:12-14. Children often grow up and do not so much what they wish, but rather what they have seen and "know" (that is, what was modeled in front of them by their parents). They follow in the footsteps of their father. How this world needs godly fathers! Elisha was a faithful servant of Elijah, a ministerial father figure for him. Even though Elijah was not Elisha's biological father, when Elijah was taken up into heaven, Elisha cried out, "My father, my father!" If you have a godly biological father who takes you to the church, you are blessed. A godly father lives his life righteously, in purity and holiness. He will instruct his children to love and obey the commandments of God. If your biological father was not godly, then God can provide you with godly father figures. By the help of God, you can live godly, even if you had an abusive dad. You can break the cycle of a generational curse. Find a godly man who can be your mentor, as Elijah was to Elisha, and Paul was to Timothy and Titus. Men: you owe it to God, your wife, your children, and your church to live a godly life.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Fullness Of Joy" from Psalm 16:1-11. We who are in God's church need to "man up." We need to make up our minds that we are going to serve the Lord no matter what the cost may be, and then do it. We must lay aside all that this world has to offer. Jesus is coming for a holy people—holy in mind, body, and soul. We need to analyze every aspect of our lives and our choices in the light eternity and the will of God. While we are living, we have on temporary garments (our bodies). These frail garments cannot experience the fullness of joy that God desires to give us. We would not be able to handle it. It is not joy such as we know on earth; it is a fullness of joy that will have no end. Do not trade your salvation and the fullness of joy for naught.

Wednesday

Elder Hannah Sandy preached "You Are What You Eat" from II Corinthians 7:1. Be careful of what you take in from the world. Just as feeding your body the wrong foods is harmful to your body, so also feeding your spirit things of the world will kill your spirit. When you commit sins, they tend to define you. For example: if you commit adultery, you are an adulterer. It is not worth eternity to try to fit into the world. Ingest just what you need for eternity.
Elder Baron Claypool preached "Led By The Spirit" from I Samuel 3:1-10. We must have a close relationship with God in order to properly hear His voice. The distractions of this world and not being faithful to church will keep us from hearing God's voice. We must stay "in tune" with God. You must continually be led by the Spirit and not the flesh in order to stay in tune with the Lord.

One Sunday in a Midwest city, a young child was “acting up” during the morning worship hour. The parents did their best to maintain some sense of order in the pew but were losing the battle. Finally, the father picked the little fellow up and walked sternly up the aisle on his way out. Just before reaching the safety of the foyer, the little one called loudly to the congregation, “Pray for me! Pray for me!”

Thoughts from the Pastor's Desk:

Of course we are disappointed over the SCOTUS decision to normalize and institutionalize the sin of homosexuality by forcing same-sex marriage onto all 50 states (overruling the expressed will of voters in some 30 states that amended their constitutions to protect natural marriage). The high court's ruling was a blow to states' rights and to the power of the people to govern themselves. The ruling will most certainly impact churches. There are now two distinct definitions for marriage, and the church is compelled by Scripture to maintain the former, long-standing definition, while five unelected judges have forced secular society to abandon it for a new definition. What should the church do when those insisting on the new definition try to force the church to adopt it? She must speak the truth in love, and stand for truth without compromise. There will be lawsuits (if not here, then elsewhere). There will be threats of, and could be, loss of tax exemption. Anti-Christian activists may try to harm property or people whom they view as "bigotted." Yet we dare not go silent. If there is any "silver lining" in this, it is the high court's comment found on p. 27 of the ruling. The passage emphasizes that the right of religions and religious persons (and others, even for non-religious reasons) to not condone same-sex marriage, is protected by the 1st Amendment. While I am pleased to see it, the statement will not prevent all lawsuits from happening. It will not even prevent Christians from losing suits when they are sued in lower courts, or from potentially suffering enormous financial burdens. It should prove helpful if their cases make it to the Supreme Court. We still need states to enact R.F.R.A.-type conscience protections to help in lower courts.
