Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "My Brother's Keeper" from Galatians 6:1-3 & Genesis 4:9. We must consider others and show love. Although others sin and make mistakes, we cannot harden our hearts as if "they deserve it" when bad things happen to them. If we want mercy, we must also give mercy. We must not be afraid to ask for help/advice for fear of seeming weak. We all struggle with things. When others make mistakes, we should show love and not condemnation. Be your brother's keeper and face adversity together. While you are in church, be aware of others instead of letting your mind drift elsewhere. Someone may be in need. Be your brother's keeper by being attentive to their needs. Jesus showed love everywhere He went. He didn't condemn, but offered hope of repentance.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "3 1/2" from Genesis 18:32-33, Deuteronomy 6:4-5, & Luke 16:14, 17:24-37. A crucial choice common to all mankind is whether to listen to God or to man. Some of the most murderous peoples in history were those who listened to man: Nazis, Communists, etc. Hitler used Darwinism to shape the view of Nazis so that killing others wasn't considered murder. They killed millions. Marx and Lennon (founders of Communism) also loved Darwinism and killed millions, as did Communists in the Orient. The culture in America today is rejecting nature (biology) and nature's God. Our age has begun to make the deliberate choice to listen to man instead of God. Yet with the Lord there is only one way! We need to be salt and light to people. We must be completely sold out to God. One cannot serve two masters! You cannot be holy while in church and around God's people, yet be worldly around worldly people. Abraham pleaded for God to not destroy Sodom if as many as ten (10) righteous people were in the city. Only 3 1/2 righteous people were there (the 1/2 was Lot's wife). They were saved, but Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed. Lot's wife is an example of how people in the church can be half-hearted and turn back to the world. We must save ourselves from this "untoward" (confused) generation. Serve God with your whole heart. We must obey God and not man, when man's word contradicts God.

Wednesday

Elder Zach Sandy preached "I Will Not Compromise" from Daniel 3:1-13. Sin is sin! There is a spirit of deception in the world - "It's all right if you miss church once in awhile" or "God doesn't call that a sin anymore." We can't be conformed to this world. We will not compromise on the Word of God. We are not ashamed of old-fashioned faith. We are in need of the old time religion.
Elder Les Benedum preached "Daddy's Home" from John 14:1-4. Our Father is coming back any time now. Let us not wait until that day to fall on our knees and worship Him. We need to come to church and worship God. That is where we will gain strength to live a sin-free life for God. Then when He calls our name, we can run to Him.
