Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Something Beautiful" from Isaiah 64:8. God can take a person who is miserable and whose life has no meaning; a life that nothing can satisfy and turn it into something beautiful. When we are baptized in His name, the blood of Jesus washes away our past. God is the potter; we are the clay; allow Him to make you the vessel that He wants you to be. Don't try to form yourself or you will fail. When Jesus came to the woman at the well (John 4), He gave her "living water." She was a social outcast, but Jesus gave her "something beautiful." Just a few moments in the presence of God can make a big difference in our life. When we surrender our life to Him, He will transform us into something beautiful. Then we can give God things that are beautiful—love, praise, kindness, godly things instead of hate, bitterness, etc.

Sunday PM

Elder Baron Claypool preached "Let Freedom Ring" from Galatians 5:1. The battle for freedom of your soul begins between your ears. There is a raging battle in our mind between the forces of God and the forces of evil. We will at times sense impressions moving us to do this or that—to do that which is evil, but when we bring those thoughts into captivity to the obedience of God, we will have freedom in our spirit. Instead of giving in to sin, the entirety of our life should be offered to God. Sin does not have dominion over us; we are free! We should surround ourselves with good influences. Do not allow anyone to sneak in and lead you astray or bring you into bondage. When God has set you free from something, don't go back and get entangled again. Let freedom reign in every aspect of your walk with God. Be free! Worship God in the spirit of holiness.

Wednesday

Elder Lorren Godwin preached from Job 1:20. How can we not serve Him? How can we not praise Him? As we go through trials, we may feel that there is no way, no answer to this, but God is in control. He knows just how much we can take. He will make a way. God understands for He was once human as we are. He could feel pain and hurt as we do. God loves us so much! He robed Himself in flesh, came to earth and lived as you and I live and then died on the cross that we may obtain forgiveness of sins. Oh, how He loves us! Job had everything he owned taken from him, yet he never charged God foolishly. He worshipped God and said, "Blessed be the name of the Lord." God is greater than any problem we have. He will make a way for us.
