Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. I hope you will join with me today in a generous donation to West Virginians For Life."

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. I hope you will join with me today in a generous donation to West Virginians For Life."

Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. I hope you will join with me today in a generous donation to West Virginians For Life."

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. I hope you will join with me today in a generous donation to West Virginians For Life."

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.

A father was reading Bible stories to his young son. He read, "The man named Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned into a pillar of salt." His son asked, "What happened to the flea?"

Pastor Doug Joseph writes, "During this annual event (on the third Sunday, the one nearest on the calendar to the anniversary of the infamous Roe v. Wade decision by the US Supreme Court), we set aside time to mourn the millions and millions of human babies lost via abortions, to pray for an end to abortion, and to reflect on and teach about the sanctity of human life, which, as a godly principle, goes deeper even than just the issue of abortion, affecting how we stand on everything from opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide, to advocating for compassionate love for children facing handicaps and for people facing various challenges and limitations. Being Pro-Life is about much more than opposing wrongful deaths. It is about loving life, and upholding the dignity of human life as a sacred gift from God. I hope you will join with me today in a generous donation to West Virginians For Life."

Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Powerful Praying" from James 5:16. Prayer is a vital part of our relationship with God. Praying is just not saying a bunch of words. Praying is seeking the face of God. We should have our thoughts focused on God. Talk to God as you would your friend, because He is your friend! God doesn't want us to come to Him and have a "pity party." When you come to Him with your problems, do so believing that He will answer. He will answer! God wants us to know that He can and will answer prayer. Pray passionately! "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much" (James 5:16).

Sunday PM

Rabbi Pesach Wolicki taught "The Biblical Definition of Marriage" from Genesis. Marriage is about not only the relationship of man and woman, but our responsibility to God and His creation. Our primary duty is not to just exist and enjoy pleasure. God put the first man in the Garden of Eden and gave him the responsibility (Genesis 2:15) to tend it and protect it (i.e. work it and to guard it). God told the man (Genesis 2:17) that the day he ate of the tree of knowledge "you shall surely die." God led the man on a journey to find a mate, which involved allowing him to name all the animals, yet no suitable helper (wife) was found for the man. The underlying message is God was showing the man that he is not an animal. Unlike animals, we have responsibility! God made him a suitable partner to help share responsibility for the work and guarding of God's world. Mankind was created with two natures: soul and body. Which is our foremost identity? The body may die, but the soul does not. On the very day we choose fleshly desire over the expressed will of God, we choose the body as our foremost identity. The woman, persuaded by evil, ate of the tree. She then seduced the man into eating also. When they made such a choice, they ceased to be beings whose identity was immortal soul; that ceased instantly. They became flesh-identity, mortal beings. This affected their relationship to each other. They were ashamed. We feel shame when we do something we don't want to identify with. God's punishment of them seeks to bring us all back to what we were intended to be. Marriage is a relationship built around shared responsibility. This must come first, before the physical relationship. By putting the spiritual before the physical, man and woman learn that the fundamental glue that binds a relationship is responsibility, meaning it's something more important than me; I serve. I work. The covenant of marriage between a man, a woman, and God—can create new life!

Wednesday

Elder Rusty Sandy preached "Keep Pressing On." We should have our minds made up that no matter what the devil throws at us, we will stand for God. When things come at us, such as sickness or financial trouble, we need to stand up and say, 'I'm not going to quit. I won't give up my walk with God.' He is in control of our life and is fighting for us. We've got to keep pressing on. We must have an active prayer life, fasting, church attendance, Bible studies. Keep pressing on until revival happens. Keep your eyes on Jesus and focus on Him. Elder Hoskins read from I Samuel 17 (David asking "is there not a cause?"), and he preached on Steps of Faith that we need to take. His message dovetailed closely with Elder Rusty's.
