Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "Who We Are" from Exodus 21:1-6. People are often confused as to how believers can be free by being servants to God. Jesus said, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest; Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" (Matthew 11:28-30). We come to Him and serve Him out of gratitude for delivering us from sin. We stay with Him out of duty for what He has done for us. Exodus 21 shows that if a man becomes impoverished, and out of necessity sells himself to another to settle a debt, he had to serve him for seven years. After the debt was settled he was free, but if he had acquired a wife and children while serving him, although he could go out free, still his wife and children had to remain. Yet if he decided he loved his wife and children more, or his master more, he could proclaim himself a love slave, a servant for life. The judges marked him and he became a love slave, serving out of love rather than obligation. We must mature until we serve God out of love rather than fear or obligation. Only then will we find our true identity of who we really are.

Sunday PM

We were greatly blessed by the Elders in tag-team preaching. Elder Rusty Sandy read II Chronicles 7:14 and spoke of the importance of repetitively renewing your relationship with God. Elders Kieran Joseph, Brian Murphy Jr., JT Sandy, Hannah Sandy, and Baron Claypool all followed in the same vein. Each Elder was led in the same direction in prayer. It was an excellent example of harmony and responding to God's call. Humble yourself and seek His face!

Wednesday

Jr Elder Kieran Joseph preached "The Devil's Folly" from Isaiah 14:12 and Proverbs 16:18. Satan was once "Lucifer" (son of the morning), an angel in heaven leading a third part of all the other angels. He was gifted to lead in worship, and was perfect until his heart was lifted up in pride. We are all called to be worshippers, and like Satan, we are susceptible to pride. We must be careful to not let arrogance overtake our hearts, lest we fall prey to the folly of Satan. Pride goes before destruction. We must always remember all our giftedness comes from God. Give Him all the glory always. Those who are gifted to lead in worship seem to have an extra large "bullseye" on them and so they must be extra careful. Satan craves to get us to fall to the same mistake he made: pride. Guard your hearts and don't let pride enter into your thinking!

Elder Les Benedum preached from Malachi 3:10-12. God opened His window to bless His children. God will bless our fruits and our name. All nations shall call us blessed of God. But if we do not open the windows of our lives then we shut God's blessings out. We need to open the windows in our lives so the blessings of God will flow into our lives. And to take every opportunity we can to be a blessing to others. As God has blessed us, we should be a blessing to others.

Nathan, a young Jewish boy, was admiring the Christmas trees displayed in his neighbor's windows. He asked his father, "Daddy, can we have a Christmas tree?" "What? No, of course not," said his father. "Why not?" Nathan asked. Bewildered, his father replied, "Well, Nathan, because the last time we had dealings with a lighted bush we spent 40 years wandering in the wilderness."
