Sunday AM

Pastor Joseph taught a Bible lesson about forgiveness, from Matthew 6:13-15 & 18:15-20. The question of whether to forgive someone who refuses to repent for their sins against you is a somewhat complicated issue. Ultimately, we as individuals must forgive others because the Lord forgave us. However, there are scriptures indicating a policy for the church, as a corporate body, to bind sin to the unrepentant. In Matthew 6 Jesus spoke of individuals forgiving people in general (not a fellow believer who is in covenant). In Matthew 18, Jesus gave a more nuanced policy when a brother (i.e. in covenant) trespasses and won't repent. There are steps for how to deal with serious matters: 1. Confront privately, 2. Confront semi-privately, 3. Bring the matter before the church. If the trespasser will not hear the church and repent, then he is to be stripped of membership. If a believer knows his brother has ought against him, he must fix it so his worship will not be hindered. As a fellowship, we are to provoke one another to good works.

Sunday PM

Guest speaker Gerald Anderson preached "Failures Of Your Past -OR the Calling Of God?" from Exodus 3:1-4, 10-11, Acts 2:1-4, 8 & Daniel 12:4. The Bible predicted that in the last days people would run to and fro and knowledge would be increased. That is now fulfilled. It is in God's nature that whenever something is about to happen, He sends someone or something to declare it or warn of it. We are living in the last days when God is pouring His Spirit upon all flesh. Moses had been a failure in his past, but God called to him from the burning bush. Moses did not let failures of the past determine his future. God is building an army for the end of days. You must let go of your past. Opportunities happen every day for us to talk to people and witness for the Lord. If you make yourself available, God may use you to say the right thing at the right time and possibly save a life. When you receive the Holy Ghost you receive that power. Be led by the Spirit and listen to the voice of God. When He says something, do it.

Wednesday

Jr. Elder Kieran Joseph preached "Sincerely Yours" from Matthew 6:24 & Romans 1:1. Our letters are often ended with Sincerely Yours to emphasize our willingness to serve. Think of your entire life as a letter to God. Can you honestly say that your closing of it could be Sincerely Yours? Are you completely sold out to God? Saul was the church's greatest enemy, but when he completely sold out to God, he became one of the greatest apostles.
Elder Baron Claypool preached "Holding On To Hope" from Genesis 8:6-11. Hope and faith are intertwined such that they go hand in hand. Noah had never seen rain before, but by faith he built the ark. No doubt he must have wondered at times just when things were ever going to work out. In the midst of trials, hold on to hope and stay faithful to God. When things are pressing you down, don't despair. Just have faith in God. Our hope is in God!

Winters are fierce in Minnesota where he lives, so the owner of a construction project felt he was doing a good deed when he bought earmuffs for his foreman. Noticing, however, that the foreman wasn't wearing the earmuffs even on the bitterest day, the project manager asked, "Didn't you like the muffs?" The foreman said, "They're a thing of beauty." "Why don't you wear them?" The project manager said. The foreman explained, "I was wearing them the first day, and somebody offered to buy me lunch, but I didn't hear him! Never again, never again!"
