Sunday Noon

Elder Les Benedum preached "Built God's Way" from Nehemiah 4:10-12. Our church is moving forward with plans to construct a new building. Our enemy is not just likely to stand by and watch. We must be ready for a fight that could be ahead. To be forewarned is to be forearmed. CAC's founding pastor, Bill Feathers, was told not to come to this city because Clarksburg was supposedly a burnt over field. It was strongly suggested he find some other city. However, God had told him to come to Clarksburg and he obeyed. He did all that he could do. Now this church that "wasn't supposed to make it" is going to build and move into another building. No matter what the adversary says, we must be obedient to God. God will go before us in battle and we shall prevail. We need to give God the glory for every victory that has happened in the church's history or your own life. It's going to take every one of us in this church, from the doorkeeper to the pastor, to build and protect what God has asked us to do. This church has a vision of moving forward. Everyone in the church is as important as anyone else. Those who are behind closed doors, praying and interceding for souls, are as important as the ones who are ministering publicly. We need to bind together and pray. We must never stop praying, and when the church is built we must keep praying, because our adversaries will always be against us. This is a fight that we are in, and we can win if we do it God's way. We must stick together if we want to win. There is nothing that we can't accomplish when we come together and do it God's way.

Wednesday

Elder Matt Anderson preached "Face Your Giant" from I Samuel 17:26-27. Face the giant that has been distracting you and keeping you from God. The giant could be finances, troubles at work or at home, struggles you're having overcoming a sin or something as small as your phone and video games. No matter what your giant is, God will help you through. We don't need to try to run away from our giant. Just trust God. We need to pray and seek God more and more.

Elder JT Sandy preached "The Significance of Being Insignificant" from I Samuel 16:1-9, 10-13 & Joshua 1:9. Each one of us is small compared to the billions of people on earth, yet we were put here for a purpose. The same God who created man in the beginning is the One who put us here to do something. We were put here to serve the Lord. We must keep the fire burning, not just at special church events but when we come home. At all times we need worship warriors, prayer warriors, praise, fasting, Bible reading, faith and love warriors. There is something for each one of us to do. People may make us feel insignificant but we are important to God. He has a plan for our lives.

A teacher who was helping one of her kindergarten students put his boots on. He asked for help and she could see why. With her pulling and him pushing, the boots still didn't want to go on. When the second boot was finally on, she had worked up a sweat. She almost whimpered when the little boy said, "Teacher, they're on the wrong feet." She looked, and sure enough, they were. It wasn't any easier pulling the boots off than it was putting them on. She managed to keep her cool as together they worked to get the boots back on - this time on the right feet. He then announced, "These aren't my boots." She bit her tongue rather than get right in his face and scream, "Why didn't you say so?" like she wanted to. Once again, she struggled to help him pull the ill-fitting boots off. He then said, "They're my brother's boots. My Mom made me wear them." The teacher didn't know if she should laugh or cry. She mustered up the grace to wrestle the boots on his feet again. She said, "Now, where are your mittens?" He said, "I stuffed them in the toes of my boots."

Fun! Kids Corner The Boy Jesus in the Temple Word Search

After three days they found him in the temple courts, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. Luke 2:46 (NIV)
The puzzle is based on Luke 2:41-52

Christian Apostolic Church
Where Miracles Live!

Welcome to 2018!

Please continue in seeking the Lord for His blessing and strength for this new year!

Thank you to all who are still donating to missions via our annual Christmas For Christ offering. Our missions offering (which may still be received up into mid January, 2018) will go to an annual fund drive to bless and help church planters and baby churches across the United States and Canada. Souls will be won through this!
