Sunday AM

Elder Lorren Godwin preached "The Shape of Water" from Genesis 49:3-4 & Ephesians 4:12-14. Our words are true indicators of our feelings. They reveal who we are. The world is listening to us as we speak. There is so much negativity in this world. We should always speak positive and pray about our problems. Be very careful of your words because they paint a picture of your soul. We are to be an example of Jesus Christ. "For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned" (Matthew 12:37). We have to check our attitude. It is said that talk is cheap, however, talk can be very detrimental. If we talk about negative things and talk about our bothers/sisters in the Lord, what kind of reflection of Jesus Christ is that? We must teach the young children what we believe in. Show them scriptures in the Bible until they see the truth themselves. Water is probably the most formable thing in God's creation. As water hits the ground it changes its form. Be very careful of your words, and keep your mind and your thoughts centered on God, so you won't be as unstable as water.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached "Gift from Heaven: Some Assembly Required" from Genesis 35:5. Children are a gift from Heaven. "Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward" (Psalm 127:3). Children are not born with sin guilt, but all of us were born with a sin curse. As soon as we get old enough to act upon our nature, we start sinning. No one has to teach a child how to sin, but parents are charged with teaching children about God and righteousness. Parents have to teach and train their children not to sin. They are gifts that require our care, diligence and involvement. We must teach them the best that we can and lead them to accepting the offer of God's salvation. Then God can teach them inwardly that which we have been teaching them outwardly. God holds the parents and grandparents accountable for teaching children about the things of God. It is vitally important that we teach our children that if we obey the Lord we'll be blessed, yet if we disobey Him we'll reap pain, disaster, and death.

Wednesday

Elder Matt Anderson preached "What Is Your Boulder" from Galatians 5:7. We ought not let people or things distract us from doing the things of God. Never let anyone or anything hinder you from obeying God. Our flesh is weak. It would rather play with worldly distractions than being involved in God's work. Don't let anything hold you back from reaching your goal.
Elder Hoskins preached "Experiencing The Other Side of Prayer" from Daniel 6:10. Daniel sought after God in prayer and he was delivered from the lion's den. Prayer is powerful. We need to continually be obedient and seek after God. When we live for God faithfully we can experience the other side of prayer.

While preaching a revival a couple of years back I was sitting on the platform with the pastor during what was a rather stirring Pentecostal worship service. As the people were singing and praising the Lord, the words to an old hymn came to my mind that would go very well with my sermon that night. I quickly grabbed a song book from nearby, looked up the song and hurriedly attempted to memorize the page number.(#238) Right about that time a 'fresh wave of worship' began to swell among the entire church as people began to leap to their feet and shout praises unto the Lord. Wanting to join them I laid aside the book and rose to shout "Hallelujah!" Instead of the intended shout of praise, however, what I heard myself cry out was "Page 238"!!!
