Sunday AM – Series: Teaching the Apostolic Faith

Pastor Joseph preached “The Doctrine of God” from Psalm 19:1-4 & Romans 1:20. God’s existence is proved by looking at His creation. The incredible orderliness and complexity of the universe from atoms to galaxies testifies to the existence of a Designer. Each of us has a conscience and has an innate sense of right and wrong. We also know that God exists because of faith. God is a Spirit (intangible, not physical or touchable). His nonmoral attributes include life, individuality, invisibility, rationality, self-existence, and eternity. He is omnipresent, omnipotent, and omniscient. God is immutable, transcendent, and indivisibly one. “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one” (Deut. 6:4). God’s moral attributes are holiness, justness, righteousness, love, mercifulness, graciousness, faithfulness, truth, and goodness. We must love, worship, and serve God with all our hearts. God’s oneness is shown throughout the Word of God. There is one God and one mediator, the man Christ Jesus. Jesus is the human manifestation of God the Father. Here are some biblical terms and their meaning regarding God: Father: God in parental relationship; Holy Ghost: God in spiritual action; Son: the manifestation of God in flesh. These terms do not describe a committee of distinct divine beings; God is one. All His fullness dwells in Jesus.

Sunday PM

Pastor Joseph preached “One Soul” from Acts 4:22. We’re at our most powerful when we are in unity as one heart/one soul. Prayer and consecration brings unity and anointing. The devil has targeted our church (and no doubt others as well). Yet we have maintained our unity. If we continue in prayer and fasting, and maintain our unity and anointing, we can be as one soul, and see revival. It is so powerful not to reciprocate with hate when you are hated. The world cannot love in such a way, because it doesn’t know God. It persecutes and hates God’s people. We must love one another. If the world hates us, we must still love them. We must stay full of the Holy Ghost and committed to the Lord. Keep praying to show love in our darkest trial. God will help us. We have only a window of time with dear people. That time is precious. We don’t know what tomorrow will bring. We need to be in a place of unity. Keep praying. Keep praising God, even in your darkest hour.

Wednesday (after the passing of our dear Elder Lorren Godwin at 1am)

Jr. Elder Adena Joseph ministered “Lost And Found.” Everyone goes through grief differently, but for all it’s a nightmare. There are seven stages of grief: shock, denial, pain, anger, bargaining, depression, and acceptance. It’s been said that time heals but that’s a myth. People often turn to drugs, alcohol, etc. to fill a void, but that’s not the answer. Jesus is the answer. He’s the One who can mend every broken heart. When you feel lost, He can find you. You may feel so overwhelmed in your pain that you want to give up, but instead reach out to Jesus. He’s the only One who can help you. He can put you on the right track again.
